ORDER REGARDING CLAIM OF PHILIP PISERCHIO

Mr. Philip Piserchio has filed a proof of claim in the amount of $13,489.00 on March 21, 2019 at Proof of Claim # 2017. ("Claim").

As part of the Fortieth (40th) Omnibus Claims Objection, the Reorganized Debtors objected to the Claim on the basis that the Reorganized Debtors are not liable for the Claim. Mr. Piserchio filed a response on December 1, 2020 at Dkt. No. 9669. In the

1 months that followed, the parties attempted to resolve the
2 matter consensually. See status reported in Dkt. No. 9866. On 3 March 19, 2021, Reorganized Debtors reported in their Report on
4 Status and Resolution of Omnibus Objections with Respect to 5 Certain Claims (Dkt. No. 10438) that the objection is
6 "WITHDRAWN".

7 Since then, Mr. Piserchio filed two letters (Dkt. Nos.
8 10625 and 10659) on May 4, 2021 and May 18, 2021. One of the 9 concerns he raised is why is the Claim being routed to the ADR
10 process when objection has been withdrawn and there are no
11 pending objections.

12 Based upon the record, there is no pending objection to Mr.
13 Piserchio's claim. As an allowed claim, it should be paid
14 unless there is a substantive objection. See 11 U.S.C. §
15 502(a).

16 Accordingly, the court gives Reorganized Debtors twenty
17 days from the date of entry of this order to object on any other
18 grounds. If they do not object, the Claim should be paid
19 promptly. Based on the amount of the Claim at stake, it should 20 not be referred to mediation under the General ADR Procedures as 21 referenced in the court's Order Approving ADR and Related
22 Procedures for Resolving General Claims of September 25, 2020
23 (Dkt. No. 9148) unless Mr. Piserchio specifically agrees in 24 writing to do so.
